Hidalgo County Clerk's Office to hold Ribbon Cutting and News Conference for department relocation

EDINBURG – County Clerk Arturo Guajardo Jr. will hold a Ribbon Cutting and News Conference for the relocation of some of his most heavily visited departments, Vitals and Official Records.

During the construction of the new courthouse the move was made to better accommodate residents who need to file or obtain documents. The new location offers free 30 minute parking outside the building and free public records search stations inside.

The event will be held at 9 a.m. on Thursday, Jan 24 at the County Clerk Vitals and Official Records Building formerly the Robert's Chevrolet Building.

"Our goal at the County Clerk's office is to always find ways to better serve the public," said Guajardo. "We look forward to continuing our efforts in working with constituents by providing the best, most efficient service we can offer."

The County Clerk's departments pertaining to court are still located at the Courthouse.
