County Clerk employees receive national recognition

EDINBURG – Two employees from the County Clerk’s office were recognized and presented with medallions by the National Background Investigations Bureau.

The Bureau also recognized the County Clerk’s office with a Certificate of Appreciation for their outstanding support to the San Antonio Field Office.

“We are very pleased to be recognized by the National Background Investigations Bureau,” said County Clerk Arturo Guajardo Jr. “Our employees work diligently and effectively to serve the community; we are proud of the work we do and are grateful for the acknowledgment.”

The National Background Investigations Bureau is the primary provider of effective, efficient, and secure background investigations for the Federal Government.

“NBIB’s mission is to deliver efficient and effective background investigations to safeguard the integrity and trustworthiness of the federal workforce,” said Special Agent in Charge Andres G. Rodriguez. “The San Antonio Field Office wanted to acknowledge the Hidalgo County Clerk for years of outstanding service and support to our national security mission.”

Agent Gloria A. Sturgis and Rodriguez recognized Deputy Clerks Rosalva Rivera and Anna Laura Sanchez for their “determination, dedication and success” in the work that they do in serving the community.
