HIDALGO COUNTY CONSTABLE LARRY GALLARDO GRADUATES FROM TAC LEADERSHIP CLASS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 24, 2011

AUSTIN – Hidalgo County congratulates Precinct 3 Constable Larry Gallardo, who was honored yesterday at a graduation ceremony for the 2010-11 Leadership Class of the Texas Association of Counties (TAC) Leadership Program. Constable Gallardo is one of only seventeen county officials from around the state who graduated from the 2010-2011 class.

The class, which takes eight months to complete, offers county leaders professional development in their roles as county government officials. Leadership skills training, including interpersonal communication, developing collaborative skills and team building, is also provided, along with such topics as the importance of being a proactive agent of change. This is the fifth year the class has been held, and enrollment is limited.

“Larry is an outstanding county official, one whose leadership and commitment to making local government more efficient and effective is very important to the taxpayers of Hidalgo County,” said TAC President Vernon Cook, Roberts County judge.

The Texas Association of Counties is a statewide organization whose members are county government officials throughout Texas.
