MEDIA ADVISORY

HIDALGO COUNTY TO RECOGNIZE UTPA ON ITS 85TH BIRTHDAY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2012

Edinburg, Texas – At its regular meeting on Tuesday, Hidalgo County Commissioners' Court will recognize the achievements and accomplishments of the University of Texas-Pan American (UTPA). Earlier this month, the institution celebrated its 85th year in existence, and the members of Commissioners' Court will acknowledge and recognize this important milestone with a proclamation in honor of the University.

Hidalgo County officials applaud the University for its longstanding commitment to providing higher educational advantages to every young man and every young woman of the Rio Grande Valley. Hidalgo County boasts numerous UTPA alumni, including members of Commissioners' Court, District and County Court Judges, and other County elected officials, leaders, and employees.

UTPA President Robert Nelsen and Vice-President for University Advancement Veronica Gonzales are scheduled to attend. A brief reception will be held immediately following the recognition.

County UTPA alumni, members of the media, and the public are invited to attend.
