HIDALGO COUNTY TO OBSERVE JUROR APPRECIATION WEEK

(EDINBURG, TEXAS)— The Hidalgo County District Clerk Office will be observing Juror Appreciation Week on Monday, May 2nd from 9am to 11am, at the Hidalgo County Courthouse. Juror Appreciation Week, initiated by the American Bar Association, is observed nationwide to honor and recognize jurors for their service and commitment.

Through their efforts, the district clerk office hopes to reinforce public confidence in the justice system, improve communication with jurors and employers, and disseminate an important and positive message regarding jury service. Participating jurors will be recognized during the morning and afternoon impanelments that Monday.

Simultaneously, the district clerk office will be hosting their 8th Annual Open House in observance of National County Government Month, which aims to raise public awareness and understanding about the role of county government and the various services provided to the community (see attached invitation).

The event is open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
