HIDALGO COUNTY TO OBSERVE JUROR APPRECIATION WEEK IN CONJUNCTION WITH NATIONAL COUNTY GOVERNMENT MONTH

EDINBURG, TEXAS — The district clerk's office will be observing Juror Appreciation Week on Monday, April 30, 2018, from 9am to 11am, at the Hidalgo County Courthouse. Juror Appreciation Week is an opportunity for the judicial system to recognize and appreciate the many Hidalgo County residents, both past and present, who have completed their jury service.

Through this effort, the district clerk's office aims to reinforce public confidence in the justice system, improve communication with jurors and employers, and help spread an important and positive message regarding jury service. Participating jurors will be recognized during each impanelment that Monday.

Simultaneously, the district clerk office will be hosting their 10th Annual Open House in observance of National County Government Month, which aims to raise public awareness and understanding about the role of county government and the various services provided to the community (see attached invitation). The event is open to the public. Light refreshments will be served.
