Two more die and 248 test positive for COVID-19 in Hidalgo County

EDINBURG – On a day that 248 more people in Hidalgo County found out they had tested positive for COVID-19 comes news that two more people have died from complications related to the virus, Hidalgo County Judge Richard F. Cortez said Tuesday. This brings that overall death toll to 25 people while the overall number of known positive cases is now at 2,130.

The deaths involved two people from Mission: a man in his 40s and a woman in her 70s. Both had underlying medical conditions.

“Another day brings two more tragic deaths of some of our neighbors,” Judge Cortez said. “My heart goes out to these people’s family and friends. We must listen to the warnings of medical experts to stop these deaths. Stay home, stay away from people. These are simple solutions to protect not only yourself but your loved ones.”

A total of 163 people are now in area hospitals with complications from the virus; 16 of those cases are being treated in intensive care units. Twenty-two people were released from isolation on Tuesday meaning that they have been symptom-free for 10 days, including three days without a fever. There are currently 1,344 net active cases and 2,656 test results are pending out of a total of 35,245 that have been administered.
