NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, October 1, 2020

Twenty more deaths related to COVID-19 recorded in Hidalgo County and 214 new positive cases logged

EDINBURG – Another 20 deaths related to COVID-19 as well as 214 new positive cases have been reported by the county's health department, Hidalgo County Judge Richard F. Cortez said Thursday. The total death count from this virus now stands at 1,718 and the total number of those testing positive is 32,198.

Of the total testing positive, 91 more people have been released meaning they have not shown symptoms for ten days or haven't had a fever for the last three of those days. The total number of people that have been released is 28,246.

"As I look at the long-term trends, I remain optimistic that our numbers overall are increasing at a slower rate," Judge Cortez said. "But I remain concerned about the deaths in our county and I ask everyone to pray for these people and their families."

A total of 173 people are now in area hospitals because of COVID-19; 55 of those patients are being treated in intensive care units.
