Hidalgo County District Clerk Reappoints Deputy District Clerks

Edinburg, Texas – In light of a new term, Laura Hinojosa, Hidalgo County District Clerk, will reappoint on Tuesday, January 4, 2011, all 63 deputy district clerks before entering upon the duties of the office. The Texas Government Code, Sec. 51.309(a), requires deputy district clerks to take the oath prescribed for officers of the state in order to perform in the name of the district clerk all official acts of the office. All appointments are executed in writing under the hand and seal of the district court and are recorded in the office of the county clerk.

A “Merienda” will be hosted by the district clerk office in honor of the reappointments at 3pm (invitation attached). County departments and the public are invited to attend both the reappointments and merienda.

Hinojosa will be sworn into office during a private ceremony with her family on Saturday, January 1st.
